We have designated a Data Protection Office ("DPO") to enhance and promote compliance with and understanding of privacy and data protection principles. If you wish to do any of the above please send an email to dpo@ibkr.com.

We may request that you prove your identity by providing us with a copy of a valid means of identification in order for us to comply with our security obligations and to prevent unauthorized disclosure of data. We reserve the right to charge you a reasonable administrative fee for any manifestly unfounded or excessive requests concerning your access to your data and for any additional copies of the Personal Information you request from us.

We will consider any requests or complaints that we receive and provide you with a response in a timely manner. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may take your complaint to the relevant privacy regulator. We will provide you with details of your relevant regulator upon request.

For individuals in the United Kingdom (the "UK"), if you are dissatisfied with the responses you received from our DPO, you may raise a data protection complaint directly with Interactive Brokers (U.K.) Limited ("IBUK"). Please submit your complaint via the IBUK Client Portal using the WebTicket system (recommended for existing clients). If you do not have access to the Client Portal, you may email privacyibukcomplaints@interactivebrokers.co.uk. We will acknowledge your complaint

Notice to California Residents: As a federally-regulated provider of financial services, IBKR is broadly exempt from the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"). Personal information we collect from clients and prospective clients is protected under separate federal legislation. Over the past 12 months, the only type of information we have collected potentially subject to the CCPA is web-browsing information regarding passive visitors to our website who are California residents, but are not our clients and do not provide us with any specific personal information (name, email address, street address, social security number, etc.) to request information about our services, start an account application or become a client. Information collected from these anonymous, passive visitors to our website may include IP address and browser-specific tags. We do not sell this information to third parties. We only use this information for internal purposes, such as to determine which advertisements are working and which content on our website is most interesting to visitors. Under the CCPA, California residents connected to this type of web-browsing data have a right to request access to it or request that it be deleted. However, we are unable (and not required) to process such requests because we cannot connect such passive web-browsing information collected with an email address or other personal information that we can use to verify that a requesting party is in fact connected to a specific web-browser or IP address.
