These terms and conditions ("Terms") govern the relationship and constitute the entire agreement between you and Interactive Brokers Australia Pty Limited ABN 98 166 929 568 ("IBA"). By opening an Account or placing an Order with IBA to purchase or sell Financial Products, you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms.

These Terms constitute a legally binding contract which you accept for yourself, if acting as a trustee of a trustee for yourself personally and as trustee of such trust(s), or on behalf of any principal, principals, persons or entities, on whose behalf you are acting as agent by opening an Account with, or giving, IBA instructions to deal or accepting services ("Service") from IBA. All Services are subject to the terms set out in this document.

The Terms contained in this document in respect of the Service are applicable for customers introduced by HSBC to IBA via the WorldTrader Service and apply to such customers only. The most current version of these Terms is available on IBA's website.²

- 1.1 The additional terms (which form part of the Terms) which apply to particular Services are as follows:

| Service | Addendum of additional terms | Application |

| International Financial Markets Transactions | Addendum [B] | This Addendum will apply to Customers trading on International Financial Markets |

- 1.2 In order to establish your Account, you will need to complete and submit your Account application to IBA for its acceptance via the Facility. IBA may, in its absolute discretion, accept or decline to provide any one or more Services that you have selected in the application. IBA may, in its absolute discretion, not require you to complete an application.
- 1.3 You acknowledge and agree that you have read and understood all documentation provided to you by IBA and HSBC including these Terms and any product disclosure statement(s) in relation to any Financial Products you wish IBA to make available to you in relation to your Account and the WorldTrader Service. You authorise IBA to open an Account for you.
- 1.4 You acknowledge that you have received, read and understood IBA's financial services guide, HSBC's Financial Services Guide applicable to the WorldTrader Service and the fees and charges applicable for transacting with IBA via the WorldTrader Service. IBA's financial services guide for persons introduced under the WorldTrader Service may change from time to time. A copy of the current financial services guide can be obtained on IBA's website³ or on from HSBC on request.

- 1.5 HSBC is responsible for providing a copy of its financial services guide and the fees and charges applicable for the WorldTrader Service – you should ensure you have a copy of HSBC's most recent FSG and the fees and charges for the WorldTrader Services before you open or trade through your Account with IBA. HSBC is responsible for providing you updates on its FSG and the fees and charges applicable to the WorldTrader Service.
- 1.6 You acknowledge that all dealings in Financial Products and the performance by IBA of its obligations under these Terms are subject to the Corporations Act, the operating rules of relevant financial markets and clearing and settlement facilities and other Applicable Laws. You agree that in the event of any inconsistency between these Terms and any Applicable Laws, the latter will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 1.7 You acknowledge that:
 - (a) IBA will not provide legal, tax, financial or accounting advice to you as part of the Services that we provide to you in accordance with these Terms.
 - (b) Except as required by Applicable Laws, we do not act in a fiduciary capacity and IBA does not owe any fiduciary obligations to you in respect of its services provided to you in connection with these Terms. Nothing on IBA's website is or shall be deemed a recommendation or solicitation to buy or sell securities, futures or any other investment products, or as to the manner in which those products are bought or sold, or to engage in any investment strategy.
 - (c) You will not seek, accept or rely on any Financial Product Advice from IBA or its representatives, or any communication that could be construed as such. Discussion of alternatives, such as the different types of investment products available to you, is not Financial Product Advice.
 - (d) Notwithstanding IBA's obligations under Part 7.8A of the Corporations Act 2001, IBA is not responsible for the suitability or appropriateness of any order, trade, investment, investment strategy, selection of advisor or other activity you may take. You agree that any order submitted to or transaction executed by IBA is solely your own decision and is based on your own evaluation of your personal financial situation, needs, and investment objective(s). IBA does not endorse and is not responsible for any advice, representation, content or other information provided by HSBC, third parties, including but not limited to any such information or third party referenced by or accessed through any Interactive Brokers website, application or platform, including but not limited to the "IBKR Investors Marketplace."
- 1.8 You are responsible for knowing the terms of all Financial Products in your Account or which you propose to acquire for your Account, including, as applicable, upcoming corporate actions (e.g., takeovers, reorganizations, stock splits, rights issues etc.), contract multipliers, present and future deliverable/settlement/(re)payment obligations, or expirations dates, and acknowledge that IBA has no obligation to notify you of any deadlines or required actions or dates of meetings or to take any action without your specific written instructions given electronically in the manner specified on IBA's website.

- 1.9 Fractional shares: if you receive fractional shares as a result of a stock split or other corporate action and,
- (a) if IBA supports holding such fractional interest and your account is enabled for fractional trading, IBA may credit your Account fractional shares; or
 - (b) where fractional interests are not supported and enabled per subsection (a) above, then IBA may, and is instructed by you to, sell the fractional shares, and you are entitled to receive your pro rata share of the proceeds of such sale. 3. APPOINTMENT AND CAPACITY

3.1 You appoint IBA as your agent for the purposes of providing the Services to you in accordance with these Terms. You acknowledge and agree that IBA may:

- (a) act as agent, in relation to the execution or arrange execution of Orders and Transactions on your behalf;
- (b) act as principal, in relation to the execution of Orders and Transactions as contractual counterparty with you; and
- (c) act as custodian, in relation to any Financial Products held by IBA for you.

- 3.2 Other than as described in clause 3.1, IBA does not act on behalf of, owe any duty to, have any liability to and need not recognise the interest of any other person, other than you, including, without limitation, if you are a trustee any beneficiary of such trust or if you are a body corporate, any shareholder or beneficial owner of you.
- 3.3 IBA and its Affiliates may enter into Transactions with you as principal, whether in respect of Financial Products able to be traded on a Financial Market or in respect of over-the-counter Transactions such as derivatives or foreign exchange related transactions. Where permitted by law, IBA or its Affiliate may take the opposite position in a Transaction with you. You authorise IBA to execute proprietary trades for itself and its affiliates, even though IBA may simultaneously hold your unexecuted Orders for the same products at the same price. You acknowledge that your Orders may match opposite Orders of another person who is IBA's client, and this may entitle IBA to receive commission from both sides of the Transaction. Similarly, if IBA deals as principal, then your Orders may match opposite Orders entered on IBA's own behalf as principal and you authorise IBA to charge you commission in respect of the Transaction in those circumstances where permitted by Applicable Laws.
- 3.4 In respect of any obligations you owe in relation to a Transaction entered into by IBA or any third party (including the HSBC) on your behalf or in your name, you appoint IBA and each of its officers and employees severally as your attorney (with full power of substitution) in order to execute or procure any document, security holder information, collateral or settlement monies and deliver any such documents, security holder information, collateral and settlement monies as required to the entity responsible for settlement.

4. ACCOUNTS

- 4.1 IBA will establish one or more Accounts or sub-accounts in respect of the Services it provides to you.
- 4.2 The calculations, reporting and administration may be performed by IBA separately for each Account or sub-account, so that (without limitation):
- (a) margin calculations may be managed and enforcement action may be taken for each Account or sub-account separately; and
 - (b) IBA may at any time aggregate one or more Accounts or sub-accounts (for reporting or managing margins or position limits or otherwise for the purposes of these Terms), even if you cannot immediately access reports for aggregated accounts.
- 4.3 IBA'S RIGHT OF SET OFF: You agree that IBA may offset any amount owing by you, which is overdue for payment, (including any negative balance in one or more Accounts or sub-accounts) against any amount IBA owes you in any Account or sub-account, without notice and without your agreement. IBA will nonetheless endeavour to provide you with commercially reasonable notice under the circumstances before exercising this right. IBA may choose, in its absolute discretion which Financial Products, cash, or account balance or other property to apply to offset the debt. For the avoidance of doubt, this right of set off (and other rights of set off under these Terms) applies in respect of rights and obligations across more than one Account or sub-account.
- 4.4 Position Limits
- (a) You agree that IBA may, in its sole discretion, acting reasonably and after providing reasonable notice where possible, establish position limits for the Account or sub-accounts and may limit the number of open positions (net or gross) that you may execute, clear and/or carry with or acquire through IBA's Services. You agree:

- (i) not to enter into any transaction that would have the effect of exceeding such position limits; and
 - (ii) that IBA may at any time reduce open positions by issuing closeout or offsetting trades or require you to reduce open positions with IBA.
- (b) IBA may, in its sole discretion, impose and enforce such limits, reduction or refusal whether or not the same are required by any Applicable Laws.
- (c) You shall comply with all position limits established by any regulatory or self-regulatory organisation or by any Financial Market. In addition, you agree to notify IBA of any position reports you are required to file with any regulatory or self-regulatory organisation or with any Financial Market or CS Facility and agree to promptly provide IBA with copies of any such position reports upon request. IBA, and each of its Affiliates, expressly disclaims any liability for any Loss incurred by you relating to or in exceeding any position limits. You acknowledge and understand that IBA is under no obligation, and is in no way agreeing or is obliged to monitor, on your behalf, your trading activities and/or compliance with any position limits.

4.5 If IBA reasonably forms the belief, in its sole discretion, that an Account has been involved in fraud or a contravention of the Applicable Laws or any relevant rules, has been accessed unlawfully, or is otherwise involved in any suspicious activity, IBA may, without limitation:

- (a) take any reasonable action a prudent broker may take in the circumstances, including inform HSBC,
- (b) suspend or freeze the account or any privileges of the Account or deny access to the Account,
- (c) freeze or liquidate funds or assets in the Account,
- (d) exercise any rights under these Terms, or,
- (e) treat the Account as if there has been a default as set out in clause 27.

You waive any claim for loss or damages against IBA arising out of or related to IBA exercising its rights under this clause, except for loss or damage caused by IBA's gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud.

4.6 Under the laws applicable to your account, IBA may be required to turn over to government authorities property that is deemed abandoned. To avoid such escheatment of property, you must periodically show activity on your account (by logging in) or otherwise contact IBA. Before remitting abandoned property, IBA will send written notice to the last known physical and email address on the account. IBA is not liable for any loss arising from or related to escheatment of your property under applicable law.

5. ORDERS

5.1 You may from time-to-time place orders with IBA for the sale or purchase of Financial Products ("Order"). Subject to these Terms, IBA will execute your Orders (or will instruct third parties to execute your Orders) in accordance with your instructions and on your behalf as agent or with you as principal. Without limiting clause 26, IBA will not be responsible for delays or errors in the transmission or execution of your Orders (except to the extent that responsibility cannot be excluded by Applicable Laws).

5.2 IBA may at any time refuse to accept an Order from, or execute Orders for, you and IBA may place a limit on any Order or place other conditions on the receipt of instructions or Orders, in its absolute discretion and for any reason IBA considers necessary to protect its legitimate interests.

5.3 IBA may cancel or amend an Order:

- (a) if required by a relevant Financial Market, regulator, CS Facility or Applicable Laws to do so;
- (b) in the event of an error;
- (c) where IBA considers the cancellation appropriate, having regard to the desirability to maintain a fair and orderly market, its obligations as the holder of an Australian financial services licence or as a participant or user of the relevant Financial Market and other legal and regulatory obligations; or
- (d) where the Financial Product the subject of the Transaction has been subject to a trading halt on a Financial Market and you have not reconfirmed instructions.

5.4 IBA will make reasonable efforts to effect any instruction to cancel or amend Orders as quickly as possible. However, should an Order be filled prior to a cancellation or amendment instruction being effected, you will be obliged to accept the Transaction or Transactions on the original terms prior to your amendment or cancellation instruction, unless the Transaction is itself cancelled or amended. You acknowledge you understand it may not be possible to cancel or modify an Order and you are responsible for executions notwithstanding a request to cancel or modify an Order.

5.5 IBA may execute Orders for you in circumstances where IBA or any Affiliate may have a conflict of interest including, for example, where IBA or an Affiliate:

- (a) holds a principal position or deals in the relevant Financial Products;
- (b) provides similar services to other persons in relation to the relevant Financial Products; or
- (c) has material price sensitive information relating to the relevant Financial Products where the individuals processing your Order are prevented from knowing or taking into account such information by reason of Chinese walls.

5.6 You acknowledge that IBA does not operate any discretionary accounts and will, unless otherwise expressly provided by these Terms, only act on your instructions.

5.7 Unless otherwise specified in these Terms (or in the terms of your Order), all Orders will remain open until either cancelled by you or purged by the trading system of the relevant Financial Market or the Facility. IBA reserves the right to acting reasonably automatically cancel any Order or unfilled part of an Order. Once an Order has partially traded, only the remaining volume can be cancelled and you remain liable for the volume traded. IBA does not accept responsibility for reinstating lapsed Orders or for contacting you to seek new instructions.

5.8 If a security code or identifier changes, you are responsible for replacing all live and contingent Order codes with the new relevant security code or identifier. IBA will not be responsible for any live or contingent Orders with the incorrect security code or identifier.

5.9 You must not instruct IBA to submit an Order to enter into any Transaction which would breach or cause us to breach the Corporations Act, any other Applicable Laws including, without limitation, any law or rules in relation to:

- (a) market manipulation, false trading, market rigging, fictitious transactions, wash trading or matching of orders;

- (b) insider trading;
- (c) unauthorised short selling;
- (d) creating a disorderly market or otherwise prejudicing the integrity or efficiency of the market; or
- (e) misleading or deceptive conduct.

5.10 Automated Client Order Processing:

- (a) Automated Client Order Processing is the process by which your Orders are registered in IBA's system and, if accepted by IBA (and, if applicable, the relevant International Financial Market Participant) for submission into the Relevant Financial Market, submitted as corresponding Trading Messages without being re-keyed by a Designated Trading Representative (DTR) of IBA.
- (b) You may place Orders through the Automated Client Order Processing facility which is part of the functionality of the Facility. You are solely responsible for placing Orders and for all errors made in placing Orders through the Automated Client Order Processing facility. An Order placed through the Automated Client Order Processing facility will only be taken to have been authorised by IBA at the time IBA accepts the order for Automated Client Order Processing, and not before that time.

5.11 Exchanges and regulators require brokers to impose various pre-trade filters and other checks to try to ensure that orders do not disrupt the market or violate market rules. Exchanges, other markets and dealers also apply their own filters and limits to orders they receive. These filters or order limits may cause your Orders, including but not limited to market orders, to be delayed in submission or execution, either by IBA or by the market. Filters may also result in an Order being cancelled or rejected. IBA may also cap the price or size of your orders before they are submitted to an exchange. IBA reserves the right in its sole discretion, acting reasonably without notice, to impose filters and order limits on any of your Orders and will not be liable for any effect of filters or Order limits implemented by IBA or an exchange, market or dealer.

6. EXECUTION AND ALLOCATION POLICY

6.1 IBA will deal with all Orders in accordance with this clause 6 and to the extent applicable, its best execution policy (which includes a summary of this allocation policy). IBA reserves the right to amend its best execution and allocation policy at any time. The most current version of IBA's best execution policy is available on the IBA website⁴. IBA will inform you of any updates to its best execution policy from time to time and will provide you with the current policy at your request.

6.2 Unless otherwise directed, IBA will select the Financial Market to which to route your Orders. IBA will use reasonable endeavours to execute or arrange the execution of your Orders in accordance with its best execution policy, which is available on its website. IBA does not guarantee execution of every Order and does not guarantee execution at best posted price; IBA may not have access to every market or dealer; orders of others may trade ahead of your Order; market centres may not honour posted prices or may re-route Orders; and market rules, decisions, system failures or other matters may prevent or delay execution of your Orders or cause orders not to receive the best price. For Financial Products traded at multiple Financial Markets, IBA may provide "Smart Routing", which seeks the best Financial Market for each Order through a computerised algorithm. You should choose Smart Routing if available. If you direct Orders to a particular Financial Market, you assume responsibility for knowing and trading in accordance with the rules and policies of that Financial Market.

- 6.3 IBA makes available various order types that use computerized algorithms. These order types allow you to input various conditions as part of an order placed with IBA. You agree that if algorithmic order types are used, it is your responsibility to understand how the order type works, including thorough review of the information on the IBA website describing particular order types. Algorithmic trading involves special risks, including, among others, the risk of software or design flaws, technical errors, adverse market impacts from algorithmic orders and rapid losses. You understand and agree to accept these risks when using algorithmic orders and you waive any right to make claims against IBA in connection with such Orders.
- 6.4 IBA will deal fairly and in due turn with all Orders and Orders placed on IBA's own account (including where any orders of Affiliates are deemed to be principal orders) having regard to the Applicable Laws and market practices.
- 6.5 To the extent it is reasonably practicable to do so, IBA will allocate all Transactions (including Transactions effected pursuant to Orders placed on IBA's own account) in the sequence in which IBA received the relevant Orders, subject to any delay or technical faults connected with or arising through the use of the Facility, the system of the Relevant Financial Market or any other delay that is outside the control of IBA.

7. PAYMENT FOR ORDERS AND REBATES

- 7.1 IBA may receive discounts, rebates, payments or other consideration from an exchange, market, dealer or other party in exchange for routing an Order to them or in connection with an Order that they trade against or permit others to trade against. In consideration of services provided by IBA to you, IBA is authorized to receive and retain such payments, rebates, or other consideration in whole or in part for its own account and not that of you, and do so without disclosing the amount received. In some instances, but at its sole discretion, IBA may share this consideration with you.

8. FOREIGN EXCHANGE AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE CONVERSION

- 8.1 All currency exchange risks regarding any payment instruction or any Order or Transaction entered into or arranged for you by IBA will be your responsibility. Other than a foreign exchange Transaction executed in accordance with terms agreed between you and IBA, any conversion from one currency to another required to be made for performing or executing any payment instruction, Order or Transaction may be effected by IBA, acting reasonably, in the manner and at the time and at the exchange rates that IBA in its absolute discretion decides and in accordance with the Spot FX Product Disclosure Statement on IBA's website. You agree that foreign exchange transaction determined and conducted by IBA on your behalf will be binding on you, and you agree not to hold IBA liable for any losses you may incur as a result of such exchange transaction conducted in this manner.

8.2 Automatic foreign currency conversion to facilitate a transaction:

If, in respect of an Account you hold with IBA and which is not a margin account via which IBA may advance to you a margin loan/loan, you incur an obligation to make a payment in respect of a Transaction or an International Transaction (as defined in Addendum B) in a currency (Purchase Currency) in which you do not have sufficient funds to meet such obligation in the Purchase Currency at the time you enter into such transaction, you,

- (a) authorise and direct IBA to enter into a foreign exchange transaction with you and on your behalf to buy the requisite amount (including commissions and fees) of the Purchase Currency necessary to settle such obligation by selling one or more of the other currencies you hold in the Account (Available Currencies); and,

- (b) for the purposes of such foreign exchange transaction, appoint IBA to determine in its sole discretion, acting reasonably, which of the Available Currencies to sell in order to buy the Purchase Currency, having regard to, without limitation, the balances of the Available Currencies and the number of transactions IBA itself is required to enter into or arrange in order to make delivery of the Purchase Currency to meet your settlement obligation in respect of the Transaction or International Transaction; and,
- (c) Acknowledge that such foreign exchange transaction will be undertaken at a foreign exchange rate derived from prevailing market conditions at the time of the execution and adjusted for any costs which arise due to the differences between the agreed settlement cycle for the Transaction or International Transaction and the standard settlement cycle for that applicable currency pair plus any fees or charges applicable. The costs and charges IBA applies for automatic currency conversion trades are detailed in the fees and charges information provided by HSBC to you in respect of the WorldTrader Service.

8.3 Automatic foreign currency conversion for foreign currency receipts/amounts:

- (a) Subject to these Terms, if IBA, a Sub-Custodian, or an International Financial Market Participant, receives or holds an amount of money in relation to your Account,
 - (i) in a currency for which IBA does not maintain a client money account under the Corporations Act, or
 - (ii) that amount is in a currency for which IBA does maintain a client money account, but such amount is a 'nominal balance' (as set out in our financial services guide), you authorise and direct IBA to enter into a foreign exchange transaction with you and on your behalf to sell such currency and purchase an amount of the nominated base currency of your Account determined with reference to the amount of currency to be sold. You further direct IBA to pay to itself or such other person as it nominates the amount of currency being sold on or around the time of receipt of same in satisfaction of your obligation to deliver the currency being sold. You agree that IBA will undertake this foreign exchange transaction for and with you using an exchange rate that IBA determines, acting reasonably, is appropriate at the time IBA undertakes the conversion plus any markups as directed by HSBC.

- (b) You acknowledge that IBA may aggregate transactions undertaken under this clause for you with the transactions undertaken for IBA's other clients and will typically deliver the amount of currency purchased to your Account on the second business day after the day on which the foreign currency transaction is undertaken. You agree that IBA is entitled to charge its usual fees and commissions, if any, as set out on its website, or its financial services guide, for such transactions plus any markup applied by HSBC.

9. CLIENT MONIES AND ACCOUNT

- 9.1 IBA must deal with any money which you pay or give to IBA, or which is otherwise received by IBA in connection with financial services provided by IBA, in accordance with the Corporations Act and Applicable Laws. For example, IBA may be required to pay such monies in a clients' segregated account or into a trust account which complies with the requirements of the Corporations Act. You acknowledge that your monies and the monies of other clients of IBA may be combined and deposited by IBA in a trust account or

- clients' segregated account. You also acknowledge that all monies credited to the clients' segregated account maintained by IBA may be used by IBA to meet the default of any client of IBA.
- 9.2 You authorise IBA to, acting reasonably, withdraw any or all monies to which you are otherwise entitled in any clients' segregated account or trust account maintained by IBA to meet any liability or obligation incurred on your behalf or on your instruction (including in accordance with these Terms as amended or supplemented).
- 9.3 IBA'S RIGHT OF SET-OFF: You acknowledge and agree that IBA is entitled, but not obligated, and you authorise IBA to set-off any amount which you owe IBA in respect of any Account or other Loss which you owe to IBA against any amount IBA receives or holds or owes you in respect of any Account without your agreement. Prior to exercising this right, IBA agrees to endeavour to provide you with reasonable notice under the circumstances.
- 9.4 You agree that IBA is entitled to all interest earned on monies credited to a clients' segregated account or trust account unless you and IBA have otherwise agreed in writing.
- 9.5 If you instruct IBA to pay an amount to you, IBA will (subject to these Terms) pay such amount the bank account you maintain with HSBC. You acknowledge that HSBC is responsible for providing IBA with the correct account details for payment instructions in respect of payments to be made by IBA to you. Whilst IBA will take reasonable steps to comply with your payment instructions, IBA accepts no responsibility for any failure to comply with those instructions and, if such failure occurs, the relevant monies will continue to be held by IBA in accordance with the Corporations Act and Applicable Laws.
- 9.6 You acknowledge that monies paid by you or IBA to an International Financial Market Participant or other service provider outside Australia or received by such a person outside Australia in connection with services provided to you or IBA, will not be subject to the Australian laws and rules governing client money, but instead will be subject to the Applicable Laws of the relevant jurisdiction.
- 9.7 INVESTMENT OF CLIENT MONEY: You agree that IBA may invest client money pursuant to the terms set out in this clause as follows:
- (a) IBA may invest some or all of the client money that it holds for you and its other clients in any client's segregated account or trust account in any investment permitted under Corporations Regulations 7.8.02(2)(c);
 - (b) IBA is absolutely entitled to any investment return on any investment of client money in excess of the principal amount invested. For the purposes of this clause only, 'investment return' means any amount of money earned on any investment of client money including without limitation any interest earned on such investment in excess of the principal amount of money invested;
 - (c) if any investment contemplated under this clause 9.7 is realised by being sold, exchanged, redeemed, or terminated prior to its maturity by IBA (or any investment issuer) or matures according to its terms, IBA may re-invest any amount realised or paid on the investment's maturity (less any investment return to which IBA is entitled pursuant 9.7(b));
 - (d) that if any "losses" are made on any investment that IBA makes pursuant to this clause 9.7 only, IBA will (if required) credit to a client's segregated account or trust account that it holds for client money, an amount equal to such loss for the particular investment. For the purposes of this clauses 9.7 only, a "loss" means the difference, if negative, between (i) the amount returned on realisation (whether by termination or otherwise) or maturity of the particular investment less any investment return to which

IBA is entitled pursuant to 9.7(b) and (ii) the original principal amount of client money IBA originally invested; and

- (e) any fees or charges incurred or otherwise payable on any such investment will be otherwise borne by IBA.

If IBA invests any client money under this clause, it acquires such investment for itself and not as agent for you.

10. CONFIRMATIONS AND REPORTS

10.1 Confirmations

- (a) IBA will, where required by Applicable Laws, give you a confirmation in respect of a Transaction ("Confirmation") IBA enters into or arranges for or with you. You consent to receiving all Confirmations by electronic means via the Facility, and acknowledge that your access to such Confirmations is subject to these Terms and the terms specified by the HSBC for your access to the Facility and WorldTrader Service. IBA may consolidate Confirmations in a report/statement. IBA may, but is not obliged to, e-mail you a copy of such a report or e-mail you notification that such is available in the Facility.
- (b) Confirmations issued by IBA are subject to the Applicable Laws, the directions, decisions and requirements of the relevant market operator, the clearing rules and where relevant, the relevant settlement rules, the customs and usages of the relevant Financial Market and the correction of errors and omissions. IBA may, at any time, reissue a Confirmation in order to correct any errors or omissions.
- (c) You agree and authorise IBA to accumulate and average the price of two or more Transactions in a single Confirmation, where permitted under Applicable Laws. If you require IBA to do so, IBA will provide you with a statement of the individual prices of the Financial Products that are accumulated and averaged in accordance with these Terms.
- (d) You are responsible for promptly checking each Confirmation. You must immediately notify IBA if you become aware that there is an error in the Confirmation. We are entitled to assume that the Confirmation is correct unless you notify HSBC and who in must notify us of any error within 24 hours following IBA giving you the Confirmation via the Facility. You are bound by your trades as executed, if execution is consistent with your Order as entered.
- (e) You agree to monitor each Order until IBA confirms execution or cancellation. Confirmations of executions or cancellations may be delayed or erroneous (e.g., due to computer system issues or inaccurate reporting), or executions may be cancelled or adjusted by an exchange, market or dealer. You are responsible to submit Notice to IBA immediately (but in no event within more than 24 hours) if: (i) you fail to receive an accurate confirmation; (ii) you receive a confirmation that is different than your Order; or (iii) you receive a confirmation for an order that you did not place. If you fail to provide such Notice, IBA reserves the right to remove the Transaction from the account or require you to accept the Transaction, in IBA's absolute discretion. You shall provide IBA with immediate Notice upon receipt of erroneous information in any account statement or other form not addressed in (i)-(iii) above.
- (f) If you are a Wholesale Client, IBA may elect not to give any Confirmation to you in relation to Transactions executed for you. If IBA so elects, these Terms are taken to be the notification required to be given by IBA to you under the Market Integrity Rules.

10.2 Records and Reports

- (a) IBA keeps records of the Financial Products held by it in a way that enables it to readily identify the Financial Products which are held by you. The records include information about the transactions in Financial Products. IBA will apply reasonable verification procedures for the appropriately frequent reconciliation of the Financial Products held by IBA as custodian. IBA will make available to you reports on the activity of your account(s) on a daily, monthly and yearly basis, detailing the profit and loss across all transactions, positions and underlying instrument and asset class and which show the change in position value for the statement period ("Reports").
- (b) IBA will provide such other information as may be reasonably requested by you in relation to any Financial Products IBA holds for you as custodian, including to acknowledge the manner in which IBA holds Financial Products for you.
- (c) You consent to receiving any reports or Confirmations that IBA may make available by electronic means via the Facility and acknowledge that your access to and use of such Reports is subject to these Terms and the terms governing the WorldTrader Service provided by HSBC.
- (d) You acknowledge and agree that the Reports made available by IBA may not be sufficient for you to discharge any obligations you have under law, whether statutory or otherwise, and that you should seek independent verification of the sufficiency of the Reports for any purpose.

10.3 Electronic Records and Communications

IBA provides electronic Confirmations, Reports, account statements, tax information, proxy materials, its Financial Services Guide, Product Disclosure Statement(s) and other disclosure documents, relevant policies and agreements, and other Customer records and communications (collectively, "Records and Communications") in electronic form to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law. Electronic Records and Communications may be sent to the Customer's Trader Workstation ("TWS") or to Customer's Email address, or for security purposes may be posted on the IBA website or on the secure website of one of IBA's service providers and customer and will need to log in and retrieve the Communication. By entering into this Agreement, Customer consents to the receipt of electronic Records and Communications, including, as applicable, where these Records and Communications are published on IBA's website, and acknowledges that this agreement is proper notification that these Records and Communications are available in electronic form on IBA's website for the purpose of ASIC Corporations (Facilitating Electronic Delivery of Financial Services Disclosure) Instrument 2015/647. Such consent will apply on an ongoing basis and for every tax year unless withdrawn by Customer. Customer may withdraw such consent at any time by providing electronic notice to IBA through the IBA website. If customer withdraws such consent, IBA will provide required Records and Communications (e.g., tax documents, proxy materials, etc.) in paper form upon request by telephone or via the IBA website. However, IBA reserves the right to require Customer to close Customer's account if Customer withdraws consent to receiving electronic delivery of Records and Communications.

In order to trade using the Facility, and to receive Records and Communications through the Facility, there are certain system hardware and software requirements. Since these requirements may change, Customer must periodically refer to the information provided by HSBC for system requirements applicable the methods to access the WorldTrader Service.

11. FAILURE TO SETTLE

- 11.1 If you fail to make payment, deliver any documents, security holder information or property to us in accordance with the relevant Confirmation and these Terms, IBA may, acting reasonably, do one or more of the following:
- (a) pass on to you all costs incurred by IBA (including any Affiliate) or any International Financial Market Participant (which may be an Affiliate) as a result of that failure;
 - (b) in the case of a sale of Financial Products or other property by you, buy-in any Financial Products or other property sold (with you being fully responsible for any Loss in connection with such purchase) and recover any costs in so acting from you and you acknowledge and agree that IBA may be obliged to do so under Applicable Laws if you failed to settle the sale or ensure that the sale is settled by the fifth Business Day after the relevant sale Order was executed;
 - (c) charge an administration fee calculated by reference to the additional cost which may be incurred by IBA as a result of your failure to settle;

 - (i) apply any cash held by IBA or to which IBA has access, or payments received for or from you, to reduce your liability to IBA; and
 - (j) cancel any of your unexecuted Orders.
- 11.2 Without limiting clause 26, you are responsible for and indemnify IBA against all costs, expenses, damages and Losses arising in connection with any failure by you to settle an executed Transaction including, but without limitation to, any brokerage, stamp duty, taxes, penalties, interest and legal costs reasonably incurred by IBA. You must pay or reimburse IBA any amount covered by the indemnity in this clause 11 immediately upon demand. IBA'S RIGHT TO SET OFF: IBA may, acting reasonably and providing you with reasonable notice where possible, deduct any of the amounts contemplated in this clause 11 (and any applicable GST) from any sale proceeds or other amounts otherwise payable to you without your agreement.
- 11.3 IBA may require you to complete a direct debit request, by which you:
- (a) request IBA to arrange for any amount IBA may debit or charge you, to be debited through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System and paid to IBA from an Account; and
 - (b) authorise IBA to debit an Account with any amount IBA may debit or charge you in accordance with these Terms.

You must not revoke or purport to revoke any direct debit request without IBA's prior written approval.

11.4 The rights described in this clause 11 are in addition to any rights that are conferred to IBA under the Applicable Laws.

12. BROKERAGE, FEES, INTEREST AND TAXES

12.1 You must pay to IBA or as IBA directs:

- (a) The brokerage fees at such rates as specified in the fees and charges information provided to you by HSBC which is available to you prior to you entering into a transaction with IBA;
- (b) any fees, taxes, stamp duty or other charges as may from time to time be levied on or in connection with any Transactions entered into with you or on your behalf that is incurred by IBA; and
- (c) interest on any unpaid amounts due under these Terms (as amended, supplemented or varied from time to time), accrued from the due date until the date the amount(s) are repaid in full, at the margin rate specified on IBA's website unless (i) otherwise agreed in writing by IBA (through its Chief Executive Officer or General Counsel) or (ii) a separate commission, fee and/or interest schedule applies to your Account based on your relationship with HSBC.

The amount of brokerage or other amounts payable by you in respect of any Transaction will be set out in the Confirmation of that Transaction.

12.2 You authorise IBA to deduct brokerage and fees or other amounts (including interest) payable by you directly from your Account. If the Account incurs a deficit, the margin rate specified on IBA's website will apply until the balance is repaid, and IBA has the right, but not the obligation, to take any actions which it is authorised to take in accordance with clause 17 in order to resolve any such deficit.

12.3 You acknowledge and agree that IBA will pay to HSBC who will receive amounts in relation to the WorldTrader Service.

12.4 IBA reserves the right to, at any time, change or impose fees in connection with the Services it provides to you. HSBC will provide you notice of such imposition or change prior to its occurrence.

12.5 Unless otherwise agreed, all amounts payable by you under these Terms are inclusive of GST.

12.6 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms, Client acknowledges and agrees:

- (a) To reimburse IBA for any and all taxes, duties, levies or similar charges that IBA or its affiliates are obligated to pay, whenever and wherever incurred or imposed and including all accrued obligations, to any tax authority which arises in respect of any transactions and services rendered to or related to assets acquired or monies held by Client through IBA or its affiliates, including in respect of any dividends or other distributions, rights, interests or proceeds of sale accruing on or in respect of the Client's assets or monies in Client's Account and any withholding tax, goods and services tax (GST) or any other applicable ad valorem or consumption tax, but excluding any income tax that IBA is itself obligated to pay on its taxable income and subject to Applicable Law ("Recoverable Amounts")

- (b) IBA reserves the right to and may in its discretion calculate acting reasonably and deduct or recover from Client's Account or withhold from any amount to be paid to Client or Client's Account, as the case may be, Recoverable Amounts.
- (c) That the laws and practices relating to tax, duties and levies in Australia and other countries may not always be clearly established, and it is therefore possible that current interpretations of law or practices may change, or that the law may be changed or clarified with retrospective effect. In accounting for any Recoverable Amounts or in making deductions or withholding or recovery of Recoverable Amounts, IBA may estimate in good faith the amounts concerned. Any excess of such estimated amounts over the final confirmed liability shall typically be credited to Client's Account. Any deficiency of such estimated amounts under the final confirmed liability may be deducted or retained from any amounts that IBA or its affiliates, or any agents or sub-custodians of them, may owe to, or be holding for Client.
- (d) Save for any circumstances attributable to the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of IBA or its affiliates, or any of their officers, agents and/or employees, to indemnify IBA for any Recoverable Amounts and any penalty or fine in relation to the non-or-under-payment thereof, to the extent that such obligations arise from any inaccurate or incomplete information, including any misrepresentation or omission of material information, provided by Client to IBA or its affiliates, and any reasonable actions undertaken by IBA or its affiliates in good faith to enforce and preserve its rights.

13. FACILITY

13.1 This clause applies in addition to the Terms in relation your use of IBA's Services through the WorldTrader Service and the Facility made available to you by HSBC.

13.2 For the purposes of these Terms, the Facility means the on-line or electronic portal, platform or application HSBC makes available to you (including, without limitation, all software and communication links, whether branded as the WorldTrader Service, Portal or platform or application) under which you may:

- (a) place your Orders or transmit other instructions to IBA in relation to Services which IBA provides to you, including in respect of Financial Products held for you;
- (b) receive information as to the pricing or value of one or more Financial Products;
- (c) if applicable, receive market data and other information in relation to one or more Financial Products;
- (d) receive Confirmations, Account or sub-account balances or other information or Reports in connection with your Account, sub-accounts or your Transactions and Financial Products;
- (e) submit instructions to IBA to initiate withdrawals or position transfers or participate in corporate actions; and
- (f) provide any other instructions, communications in relation to the Services.

In these Terms we refer to such a service as the Facility.

13.3 You agree and acknowledge that:

- (a) your access to the Facility is governed by these Terms and any terms and conditions that HSBC may have in place for using its WorldTrader Service.

- (b) IBA is entitled to rely on all instructions given, or apparently given, by you or on your behalf (including by HSBC) using the Facility and you are bound by any Transaction or any dealing or other action or omission in connection with your Account or any Financial Products held for you in reliance on such instructions. Despite any other provision of these Terms, IBA will not be liable for any Loss caused by us acting on instructions or other communications using the Facility;
- (c) there may be delays in the processing, execution, amendment or cancellation of an Order entered through the Facility and:
 - (i) an Order may be wholly or partly filled before an instruction for its amendment or cancellation is processed;
 - (ii) you remain liable to settle the original Order, until any relevant amendment or cancellation is effected; and
 - (iii) without limiting clause 26, IBA will not be liable for any Loss incurred by you arising from any delay in the dissemination of market information or the processing any Order or instruction to amend or cancel an Order;
- (d) the execution of an Order placed through the Facility may be prevented or delayed by filters or other electronic features of the Facility, imposed by IBA (including but not limited to credit check filters, regulatory compliance filters and filters to prevent trades that would breach the Applicable Laws) or systems operated by the relevant Financial Market;
- (e) IBA will not be responsible for the processing, execution or cancellation of any Orders submitted through the Facility, regardless of who enters such Orders and regardless of whether or not there is an error in the Order entry or for any delays;
- (f) IBA makes no representations or warranties express or implied with respect to the Facility and does not endorse any representations or warranties expressed or implied made by HSBC or any other person;
- (g) the speed of information IBA provides through the Facility is subject to a number of factors including, but not limited to, the speed of the user's internet connection, the user's settings, the number of concurrent users accessing the Facility and the volume of information being received and sent by the Facility;
- (h) there are risks in trading through IBA through the Facility because the service is provided by means of computer and shared telecommunications systems and facilities (even where generally accepted industry standards and practices are followed). These risks include that; the information you send to, and receive from, the Facility may be accessible by third parties, that other users of the Facility, institutions or brokers may be able to see your Orders and other communications relating to trading and execution without your (or IBA's) consent; and that third parties may have access to your network without your (or IBA's) consent;
- (i) IBA is not liable to you for any loss you may suffer due to any restrictions on your account or interruptions, delays or failure of the Facility. In order to mitigate the risk of loss to you that may be caused by such an event, or due to any other disruption in your ability to use your IBA account, you are responsible for ensuring you have in place alternative arrangements for the execution of Orders or other services available through the Facility of sufficient capacity and utility to allow you to open, close or change positions as necessary to mitigate risk of loss to you, should the Facility or any aspect of it cease to be available or subject to failure (including, for example, arrangements for the use of telephone or facsimile, contact arrangements with HSBC, and alternative brokerage accounts with other brokers);

- (j) During periods of heavy trading and/or fast or volatile market conditions with wide price fluctuations ("Fast Markets"), there may be delays in IBA executing your orders or providing trading activity reports to you. If you place a market order in a Fast Market, there may be significant difference in the quote you receive prior to or at the time you place the Order and the execution price you receive. By placing a market order under such conditions, you accept this risk and waive any claim related to a difference between quoted and execution price. If IBA, in its sole discretion, believes any particular stock is or may be volatile, IBA may, but is not obligated to, decline to accept Orders from customers, including you, placed through the Facility. In addition, IBA reserves the right, but is not obligated, to prevent any IPO stock from being traded through IBA's services. IBA is not liable to you for any losses, lost opportunities or increased commissions that may result from you being unable to place orders for these stocks through IBA's services.
 - (k) you will notify HSBC immediately if you become aware of any inaccurate information being transmitted through the Facility including, for example, inaccurate content as to Orders, Transactions or Account balances; and
 - (l) you will only use the Facility for your own internal business and investment purposes. You are responsible for reading, understanding and keeping up to date with the details of the operational aspects of the Facility as provided by HSBC.

- (a) an officer or representative of your who is permitted to use the Facility on your behalf; or
 - (b) your agent who you have appointed to use the Facility on your behalf.
- You must provide prior notice to us in a form agreeable to us (which may be in writing) of any authorised person permitted to use the Facility on your behalf. You must also notify us immediately should there be any changes to the person and/or authorisation.
- 13.5 Orders placed through the Facility will be executed at the market price available on the relevant Financial Market (subject to any limit specified in the Order). You acknowledge that:
- (a) the market price may move and be different from the price at which the relevant Financial Product was trading when the Order was placed by you through the Facility; and
 - (b) IBA is not liable for any Loss incurred by you by reason of any such movement in market price.
- 13.6 You are responsible for the consequences of: any unauthorised disclosure or use of the any email address, logon code, user ID, account ID or account or trading password utilised by you to access the Facility (Security Information); a failure to prudently keep such Security Information secure (including but not limited to changing such Security Information as necessary) which may or may not result in the forgoing; and, for any actions or omissions of an authorised person. You agree to provide immediate notice to IBA of any theft or loss of Security Information, or any unauthorised access to your account. Use of your credentials to effect any action will constitute conclusive evidence that IBA may treat such action as authorised. IBA is not liable for loss or damages caused by any third party using your credentials and Security Information. Unless IBA agrees in writing, you will not permit any third-party access to your account using your account credentials and Security Information.

- 13.7 IBA may suspend, terminate or impose conditions on the use by you or any authorised person of the Facility at any time. IBA may also decline to accept, to execute or to cancel any Order, or may otherwise restrict, in whole or in part, your use of IBA's services at any time, for any length of time, in IBA's sole discretion. Such restrictions on trading activity may include, but are not limited to: (i) prohibiting you from engaging in trading of (or entering Orders to open or increase the size of a position in) any individual instrument or category of instrument (whether stock, option, or another security, or a commodity, or other investment product); (ii) prohibiting certain types of trades or orders; or (iii) limiting Order size or value at risk. For the avoidance of doubt, IBA agrees to not unreasonably exercise its rights under this clause to refuse to execute a closing order for you. Where IBA exercises its rights under this clause, IBA will use reasonable endeavours to provide notice to you, where possible, but in any event IBA will not be liable for failure to provide such prior notice to you. Notwithstanding the above, you remain responsible for your Orders and transactions without regard to whether IBA restricts, or does not restrict, your trading activity. All transactions are subject to rules and policies of relevant markets and clearinghouses, and applicable laws and regulations. IBA IS NOT LIABLE FOR ANY ACTION OR DECISION OF ANY EXCHANGE, MARKET, DEALER, CLEARINGHOUSE OR REGULATOR, OR THE DIRECT OR INDIRECT CONSEQUENCES THEREOF.

You agree to issue, and are responsible for the issuance of, specific cancellation or amendment instructions with respect to an existing Order and not to attempt to effect changes by placing a second or duplicate Order. You will be solely responsible and liable for any duplicate instruction that you place.
- 13.9 If a failure, interruption or malfunction of electronic communication between the parties prevents an Order from being placed, cancelled or amended, without limiting clause 26, neither party shall be liable to the other party for any Loss caused by that failure, interruption or malfunction.
- 13.10 You acknowledge that all market data and information in relation to trading, volumes and pricing for a Financial Market provided through any Facility may be proprietary information of the relevant Financial Market or another person and any display, dissemination or other use of that information may be subject to restrictions imposed by the Financial Market or other person. You are responsible for complying with any such restrictions.
14. CANCELLATION
- 14.1 Applicable Laws may give the operator of a Financial Market, a CS Facility or a regulator the power to cancel, amend or require the cancellation or amendment of a Transaction. This power can be exercised without your permission or IBA's agreement.
- 14.2 You authorise IBA, and agree that IBA may, without your consent, cancel or amend (or request or agree to the cancellation or amendment of) any Transaction:
- (a) if the operator of a Financial Market or CS Facility exercises any power under their respective operating rules to cancel or amend (or require the cancellation or amendment of) that Transaction;
 - (b) if so directed by a regulator under Applicable Laws;

- (c) in the event of an error (if relevant, as defined in the Rules of the relevant Financial Market) or otherwise in circumstances required or contemplated by the Applicable Laws; or
 - (d) where IBA consider the cancellation appropriate, having regard to the desirability to maintain a fair and orderly market and our obligations as the holder of an Australian financial services licence or as a participant or user of the relevant Financial Market and our other legal and regulatory obligations.
- 14.3 The obligations of you and IBA under these Terms in relation to the settlement of a Transaction which is cancelled in accordance with this clause, cease to apply in respect of that cancelled Transaction from the time it is cancelled (whether or not IBA or someone on behalf of IBA has given you a Confirmation in respect of any affected Transaction).
15. CUSTODY
- 15.1 You appoint IBA as custodian in respect of any Financial Products held by IBA for you (excluding where the holding of any Financial Product does not constitute the provision of a custodial and depository service under Section 766E of the Corporations Act 2001).
- 15.2 You acknowledge and agree that IBA as custodian is authorised to hold Financial Products with any person appointed by IBA as Sub-custodian, who may in turn appoint a sub-sub-custodian. IBA will generally provide you with notice of and contact information of any other person to be engaged by IBA to hold your Financial Products as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event, before the Financial Products are held by such person for you by posting such notice on IBA's website⁵. You agree to access the notice at IBA's website and to check the notice regularly as the information will change from time to time. However, there may be circumstances where prior notice will not be provided, for example, in the event that the Sub-custodian is or may become insolvent.
- 15.3 Where IBA acts as your custodian, IBA will:
- (a) act on legally valid instructions in relation to the Financial Products held for you in accordance with these Terms;
 - (b) provide reports as detailed at 10.2;
 - (c) exercise reasonable care in engaging and monitoring the performance of any Sub-custodian it appoints;
 - (d) exercise the care, skill and diligence in the provision of the above services as custodian that a reasonable person would exercise, having regard to the relevant Financial Product, Financial Market, jurisdiction and the Applicable Laws.
 - (e) IBA accepts liability under these Terms for direct loss suffered by you resulting from a failure by IBA or any Sub-Custodian to comply with any duties it has under these Terms or other agreement relating to the holding of Financial Products or to observe reasonable standards of care generally applicable to providers of custodial or depository services in the relevant jurisdiction. However, IBA is not liable to you for any
 - (i) loss arising from the acts or omissions of any Securities System; or
 - (ii) loss arising from or attributable to the insolvency of any Sub-custodian where IBA has not failed to take reasonable care in engaging and monitoring compliance by that Sub-custodian. Notwithstanding any other provision of these

Terms, in the absence of a failure by IBA to take reasonable care in engaging and monitoring compliance by a Sub-custodian, IBA will only be obliged to return Financial Products held for you with a Sub-custodian who is insolvent if and to the extent that those Financial Products are recovered from that Sub-custodian.

15.4 You acknowledge that:

- (a) IBA will generally maintain an omnibus account for holding of Financial Products for its customers (including you) unless otherwise specifically required by the Applicable Laws;
- (b) IBA will generally maintain an omnibus account with any Sub-custodian appointed by IBA and will not maintain a separate account for you;
- (c) When IBA appoints a Sub-custodian, that Sub-custodian holds Financial Products for IBA and not for you;

15.5 Where IBA acts as your custodian, IBA will hold such Financial Products on trust for you as bare trustee in accordance with these Terms. However, IBA will not hold a Financial Product on trust for you where you have instructed IBA to deal or arrange for a dealing in the Financial Product as Broker in a place outside of this jurisdiction where either (i) trusts are not known or (ii) it is not reasonable for the Financial Product to be held on trust in accordance with the law of that place and IBA has determined that the Financial Product is held in a manner which, having regard to the laws in place in that jurisdiction, provides reasonably effective protection for such Financial Product in the case of the insolvency of the relevant Sub-custodian or International Financial Market Participant. In these situations, the Financial Product will be held in accordance with the law of that jurisdiction.

15.6 IBA will use reasonable endeavours to deal with all rights in respect of Financial Products (including, for example, voting rights) in accordance with your instructions provided that such instructions are received in such manner and at or before such times as notified to you. IBA will not exercise any voting rights attached to Financial Products except in respect of instructions received from you. In the absence of receiving instructions from you, IBA may take or forbear from taking any other action in relation to Financial Products which IBA considers appropriate.

15.7 You must pay on demand any call, subscription amount or other amount payable in respect of any Financial Products held by IBA as custodian for you. If you fail to make such a payment, IBA may (but is not obliged to) make the payment itself and you must on demand indemnify IBA against such payment and acknowledge that IBA may deduct such amount from any money held in your Account.

15.8 IBA has and will maintain a Business Continuity Plan which in its opinion is adequate to address any contingency for which it should reasonably plan having regard to the services it provides.

15.9 Unsupported Products or markets:

- (a) You acknowledge and agree we reserve the right to restrict or remove access to any Financial Product or Foreign Financial Markets and may refuse to receive (by way of transfer) on your behalf or cease to provide custody for certain Securities or Derivatives and refuse or remove support for any currency (Unsupported Product). We may do this for a variety of reasons but not limited to any Sub-custodian of ours becoming or anticipating becoming unable to hold or facilitate transactions in the relevant product(s).

- (b) If we cease to support any Financial Product or currency or provide access to any market, we will, acting reasonably, endeavour to:
 - (i) provide you with as much prior notice as is reasonably possible in the circumstances but you acknowledge that it may not, due to factors beyond IBA's control, be possible to provide you with notice.
 - (ii) facilitate your disposal (whether by sale or entering an offsetting transaction to effect close out) of or transfer of any Unsupported Product to another provider if permissible and applicable.
- (c) You agree that should we be able to provide you notice of ceasing to support your ability to transact in or hold any Unsupported Product and you fail to provide instructions as to the disposal or transfer of such during the period specified by us for taking action in relation to same, then we reserve the right to:
 - (i) Sell or enter into a trade to close out, as the case may be, any unsupported Financial Product on your behalf and meet any obligation in relation to such transaction from money held for you, and,
 - (ii) convert the proceeds (if any) arising from such transaction to Australian dollars or the base currency of your Account.

16. DESIGNATION OF A TRUSTED CONTACT PERSON

- 16.1 You are encouraged, but not required, to designate a Trusted Contact Person ("TCP") for your account. A TCP is someone who is 18 years of age or older that you authorize IBA to contact for assistance if IBA is concerned that you may be the victim of financial exploitation or experiencing mental or physical impairment that is affecting your ability to manage your account.
- 16.2 By designating a TCP, you authorize IBA (and your advisor or introducing broker if you have one) to contact the TCP in IBA's sole discretion and to disclose to the TCP any information in IBA's possession about you and your account, including financial information, your identity and contact information, the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee or holder of power of attorney, and facts regarding the circumstances that have caused IBA to contact the TCP for assistance.
- 16.3 Designating a TCP does not ensure that financial exploitation will not be attempted or occur and does not obligate IBA to contact the TCP. You waive any claim for loss or damages against IBA arising out of or relating to IBA contacting (or not contacting) your designated TCP.

17. SECURITY INTEREST AND PPS ACT

- 17.1 You hereby,
 - (a) Subject to clause 17.2, instruct and agree that all assets of any kind held by or on behalf of IBA for you (including without limitation any Financial Products held by IBA as custodian under clause 15) are subject to a perfected first priority lien and security interest in IBA's favour, and to the extent allowable, pledged to IBA, to secure performance of obligations and liabilities to IBA arising under these Terms or any other document. If you fail to fulfil your payment (including margin) obligations under these Terms, IBA may combine or consolidate any of your accounts with IBA and convert to money, or use a requisite portion of your property under IBA's control, sufficient to satisfy the outstanding obligations under these Terms and apply the proceeds or any property over which IBA or an Affiliate (including without limitation, IBA Nominees) holds or controls in or towards payment of your liabilities to IBA.

- (b) Subject to clause 17.2, further instruct and agree that if you have not provided cash in the relevant currency to meet your margin obligations (as contemplated in clause 18), IBA may, up to a value equal to your margin obligation, grant a first priority lien and security interest with the power of sale over Financial Products, collateral and/or property (subject to IBA's ability to apply a haircut), including all proceeds of the foregoing, held by or on behalf of IBA for your Account in favour of an International Financial Market Participant in order to secure IBA's obligations and liabilities incurred to such International Financial Market Participant in respect of Orders or Transactions undertaken in accordance with your instructions or otherwise in accordance with this Agreement. You acknowledge that (i) if IBA defaults on its obligations (including payments or margin) to such International Financial Market Participant, it may enforce its lien and security interest, including by power of sale, regardless of whether you are in default under these Terms, and (ii) agree in the event of any such sale your interest in those assets is extinguished and any person party to that dealing may take the assets free of any interest you may have had. You hereby instruct IBA to take any steps required to create, perfect (by control) and permit the enforcement of the security interest in favour of the International Financial Markets Participant under this clause pursuant to the Applicable Laws and the laws in force in the relevant jurisdiction;
- (c) Agree these rights are in addition to any rights IBA may have at law or equity; and,
- (d) acknowledge that this clause 17 may create a security interest in IBA's favour under the PPS Act and accordingly:
 - (i) without limiting the extent to which our security interest may be perfected by control or any other method under the PPS Act, IBA may, at your cost, register one or more financing statements or financing change statements in relation to IBA's security interest (if any) under the PPS Act;
 - (ii) to the extent permissible, you waive your right under section 157 of the PPS Act to receive notice of any verification statement relating to the registration of any such financing statement or any related financing change statement;
 - (iii) you agree to provide IBA with all information that IBA requires to ensure that any registration of its security interest on the PPS Register is, and remains, fully effective or perfected (or both), and that the security interest has the priority required by IBA; and
 - (iv) to the extent the PPS Act allows them to be excluded, the enforcement provisions in Chapter 4 of the PPS Act do not apply to these Terms.

17.2 IBA acknowledges that it is prohibited from taking or granting a charge, mortgage, lien or other encumbrance over, or in relation to, the Financial Products which it holds on your behalf as custodian, unless it is for expenses and outlays made in accordance with these Terms (other than our unpaid fees) or in accordance with your instructions in these Terms or otherwise.

18. MARGINS AND AUTOMATIC LIQUIDATION

18.1 This clause applies in the circumstances where IBA requires you to maintain margin in respect of the Orders you submit, and Transactions entered into with or for you. IBA may allow, at its discretion, you to meet margin obligations in cash or with acceptable collateral, such as but not limited to Securities. Where IBA accepts collateral (for example, Securities) in lieu of cash margin or where IBA is required to meet obligations incurred on your behalf in cash itself and you do not have sufficient cleared funds to reimburse IBA in a currency with IBA or sub-custodian appointed by IBA, you agree IBA may treat your

- account as in deficit and charge you interest at margin rates specified on its websites accordingly.
- 18.2 Unless you have notified IBA to the contrary, no assets held as collateral are restricted securities, as such term is defined pursuant to Rule 144 under the United States Securities Act of 1933, (the U.S. Securities Act), or securities of an issuer with which you are an affiliate, and you will not attempt to sell such shares through IBA without prior notice to and consent of IBA.
- 18.3 You are required to monitor your Account at all times to ensure that it meets its margin requirements at all times. IBA may modify its margin requirements at any time in IBA's sole discretion. IBA will use commercially reasonable endeavours to provide notice to you, where possible, of changes in margin requirements, but in no event will IBA be held liable for its failure to provide notice to you prior to IBA exercising its rights under clause 18. You acknowledge and agree that IBA may provide notice to you of margin requirements via the Facility. IBA may reject any order if your Account does not meet its margin requirements (or would not do so on execution of the Order). You acknowledge that formulas for calculating margin requirements on IBA's website are indicative only and may not reflect actual margin requirements.
- 18.4 IBA will generally not issue margin calls and will not notify you in advance if your Account does not meet the margin requirements. IBA will, however, endeavour to provide you with electronic warnings via the Facility to alert you when your Account is approaching a margin violation. IBA will use commercially reasonable endeavours to provide notice prior to exercising any of its rights under this agreement if your Account does not meet the margin requirements at any time, but in no event will IBA be held liable for its failure to provide notice to you.
- 18.5 If at any time your Account does not meet the margin requirements specified by IBA, IBA may, without limiting its other rights, sell, close out or otherwise liquidate all or part of your positions in any of your accounts held with IBA or with any International Financial Market Participant or Affiliate of IBA with no prior notice to you. IBA will use commercially reasonable endeavours to provide notice to you, where possible, but in no event will IBA be held liable for its failure to provide notice to you. This liquidation will usually occur automatically but notwithstanding the foregoing, IBA has no obligation to take any action if your Account does not meet the margin obligations.
- 18.6 You will be liable and must promptly pay IBA any amount owing to IBA arising from any such liquidation or remaining after any such liquidation. IBA has no liability to you for any loss arising from any such liquidation.
- 18.7 IBA may allow you to pre-request the order of liquidation of your assets in the event that you no longer meet the margin requirement, but you acknowledge that such requests are not binding on IBA and IBA retains sole discretion to determine the assets to be liquidated and the order of their liquidation.
- 18.8 You acknowledge that the market values/prices used to calculate the equity in your Account (and/or sub account) and to calculate the margin requirements, shall be determined by IBA in its sole discretion and varied without prior notice to you and may differ from the values/prices disseminated by Financial Markets or other market data sources. Among other things, IBA may calculate its own index values, exchange traded fund values or derivatives values, and value securities or futures or other Financial Products based on bid price, offer price, midpoint or using some other method. IBA may use a valuation methodology that is more conservative than the marketplace as a whole and this may effectively constitute a higher "house" margin requirement, which IBA has the right to establish. IBA may raise Margin Requirements in advance of an upcoming change in the required exchange or clearinghouse margin even before the effective date of such change. If you have multiple accounts with IBA (or if you utilize IBA's partition function to create subaccounts), at IBA's sole discretion IBA may treat such accounts (and/or subaccounts) either as separate or as one account for purposes of applying the Margin Requirements. You acknowledge that this may cause the total Margin Requirement to be higher than otherwise and could cause positions to be liquidated in one account or subaccount notwithstanding excess equity in another account or subaccount.

- 18.9 You will not rely on IBA to close or liquidate positions in your account in the event your account does not comply with Margin Requirements. You will not rely on IBA's liquidation rights and auto-liquidation systems to function as a stop-loss order. You cannot assume that IBA's general policy to liquidate positions will prevent you from losing more than you have deposited. Among other things, market prices may not rise or fall incrementally and IBA may not be able to close out a position at a price that would avoid losses greater than the margin deposit. Likewise, IBA may in its discretion delay or decide not to liquidate positions in an account with a margin deficit and shall have no liability for any loss sustained by you in connection with such delay of or forbearance from liquidation.
- 18.10 IBA's margin requirements or risk control parameters may include leverage ratio limits or position size limits for securities, derivatives, currencies or other Financial Products. If these limits are reached or exceeded, you may not be able to place new Orders and you authorise IBA to liquidate existing positions and/or enter into risk-reducing Transactions on your behalf without notice, in order to bring your Account back into compliance with the relevant limits. You acknowledge that IBA is under no obligation to do so.
- 18.11 You acknowledge that IBA and/or its Affiliates may take the other side of any liquidation transaction or risk reducing transaction.
- 18.12 You must reimburse and hold IBA harmless for any acts, omissions, costs, fees or liabilities associated with any liquidation undertaken by IBA save for any fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of IBA or its agents or employees.
- 18.13 Notwithstanding the above, if for any reason you fail to meet the margin requirements and IBA does not liquidate your positions but instead issues you with a margin call, you must satisfy such call within a commercially reasonable time and the manner specified by, or otherwise acceptable to, IBA. You acknowledge that even if a margin call is issued, IBA does not waive any of its other rights against you, including the right to immediately liquidate positions in order to meet margin requirements.
- 18.14 You acknowledge and agree that Margin Requirements and related rules of exchanges, clearinghouses and regulators generally are designed to protect the integrity of markets and the capital of broker-dealers that are subject to such rules and are not generally intended to protect you. IBA's failure to apply or enforce Margin Requirements and related rules shall not give you any right to bring an action against IBA and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a warranty or undertaking that IBA will apply or enforce the Margin Requirements and related rules.
- 18.15 You acknowledge that IBA may do anything under this section 18 without any prior notice to you notwithstanding anything otherwise set out in these Terms and that you do not need to be in default before IBA may take action under this section 18.

19. INFORMATION AND ADVICE

- 19.1 IBA may (but is under no obligation to) provide you with information or data concerning interest rates, securities, derivatives, foreign currency, property, other Financial Products or markets generally.  - (b) you will not consider the information and explanations relating to the terms of a Transaction to be financial services or Financial Product Advice on, or a recommendation to enter into, any Transaction; and

You understand that if you do not provide any information requested by IBA or do not agree to IBA using your information as set out in this clause 20, IBA may not be able to provide its Services to you.
- 20.8 You authorise IBA to record any or all incoming and/or outgoing phone calls with IBA without making a disclosure to you of this nature each and every time you speak with a representative of IBA. These calls may be recorded with or without an audible tone. You agree that IBA may use such recordings for the purposes of monitoring compliance with your and IBA's respective regulatory and contractual obligations and resolving disputes. If there is a dispute between IBA and you, you have the right to listen to any recording of those conversations. Nothing in these Terms oblige IBA to keep a recording longer than the minimum periods required by the Applicable Laws.

22.3 For the purposes of this section, an unacceptable Change of Control or change in the fundamental nature of your business includes, but is not limited to, a sanctioned person having assumed control of you as a result of the change, or the basis of which you operate and/or use IBA's services contemplated in these Terms no longer meets legal or statutory requirements.

23. ANTI-TERRORISM/MONEY LAUNDERING

23.1 You acknowledge that:

- (a) IBA is subject to various anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws (AML/CTF Laws) which may prohibit IBA from offering Services or entering into or conducting Transactions; and
- (b) the AML/CTF Laws include prohibitions against any person dealing with the proceeds of or assets used in criminal activity (wherever committed) and from dealing with any funds or assets of, or the provision of finance to, any person or entity involved (or suspected of involvement) in terrorism or any terrorist act.

23.2 You agree that:

You agree that IBA may disclose information which you provide to IBA, or about Transactions you are or seek to conduct with IBA, where IBA is required to do so by any law in Australia or any other country.
- 23.4 You represent and warrant to IBA that the payment of monies by IBA in accordance with this document, or any instructions given by you, will not breach any law in Australia or any other country.
- 24. RISKS OF FOREIGN MARKETS; AFTER HOURS TRADING
- 24.1 You acknowledge that trading securities, options, derivatives, futures, currencies or any product on an International Market is speculative and involves high risk. Trading outside ordinary market hours poses special risks, including risk of lower liquidity higher volatility, changing prices, unlinked markets, news announcements affecting prices, and wider spreads. You represent that you are knowledgeable of and able to assume these risks.
- 25. RISKS REGARDING POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENTAL ACTIONS
- 25.1 Governments of countries in which IBA clients reside, or countries in which IBA clients invest, may take economic and/or political actions that are adverse to investors and such actions may negatively affect IBA client's account. You agree that IBA (and its affiliates) are not liable for such actions affecting your account. For example, if you invest in securities, futures, foreign currency or other investment products in a foreign jurisdiction, such assets, or cash to secure such assets, typically will be held at a bank, clearinghouse or other facility in such foreign jurisdiction. Assets and cash held in foreign jurisdictions are inherently vulnerable to the risk that the government in such jurisdiction could freeze or confiscate or take some other action against such assets for some purpose, temporarily or permanently. Likewise, even with respect to investments within your own country, governments may freeze or take other action against such assets on the basis of political, economic, or military conflict. You acknowledge and agree that IBA (and its affiliates) cannot and will not protect you from actions by any governmental, political, military, or economic actor that may adversely impact your assets held by IBA, its agents or sub-custodians. You agree that that IBA (and its affiliates) is not liable for any losses or damages you may incur as a result of any such action.
- 26. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNITIES

 - (a) IBA makes no warranties either expressly or impliedly, as to merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or otherwise (including as to accuracy, currency, availability, completeness or quality), with respect to any services IBA provides under these Terms including, without limitation, the Facility;
 - (b) IBA excludes all liability in contract or otherwise relating to or resulting from use of any service IBA provides in any capacity in which it may provide such service under these Terms and for any Loss incurred by you directly or indirectly without limitation as a result of or arising out of:

- (i) any inaccuracy, error or delay in or omission from any information provided to you under these Terms including the Facility;
- (ii) any delays or failures or inaccuracies, or loss of access to, the provision of a service to you including, without limitation, any delay, failure or inaccuracy in, or the loss of access to, the Facility or in respect of the transmission of Orders or any other information;
- (iii) any misinterpretation of your Orders or instructions which are unclear, ambiguous, or not specific;
- (iv) a Service Disruption Event.

26.2 EXCLUSION OF CONSEQUENTIAL LOSSES: To the fullest extent permitted by Law, neither party is liable in contract, tort (excluding gross negligence) or otherwise for any loss of prospective profits or expenses or special, indirect or consequential damages resulting from the supply or use of a Service including, without limitation, the Facility and the provision of custodial or depository services.

26.3 To the fullest extent permitted by law and except to the extent of any losses or claims that are proportionately attributable to IBA's (or its agents or employees) fraud, negligence or wilful default, you release, discharge and indemnify and agree to keep IBA and its respective officers, employees, agents and representatives indemnified from and against all claims arising out of:

- (a) any default by you, whether by your act or omission under these Terms or any order or Transaction;
- (b) any breach by you of any Applicable Law;
- (c) any representation or warranty made or given by you under these Terms proving to be untrue or incorrect;
- (d) any error, omission, fraud, malfeasance, negligence, misappropriation or criminal act or omission by you or by any of your clients, employees, agents or authorised persons, consultants or servants in relation to any obligation or service in connection with these Terms;
- (e) any failure of any of your computer or electronic systems or networks to perform, be available or successfully transmit data to IBA, or any error or inadequacy in the data or information input into such systems or networks by you;
- (f) any delays in processing any Order including, for example, as a result of systems or market delays, or due to verification procedures or unauthorised processes or due to call waiting time or adherence to internal policies and procedures;
- (g) anything lawfully done by IBA in accordance with these Terms;
- (h) IBA or any agent of or sub-custodian appointed by IBA acting in accordance with any instruction, request or direction given by you;
- (i) IBA complying with any direction, request or requirement of Applicable Law, any financial market or CS Facility, any government body or any regulatory body having jurisdiction over IBA;

- (a) In addition and subject to clause 18 of the Terms, you also acknowledge that:
 - (i) IBA may call for payment of money or the provision of other security which IBA considers, in its absolute discretion, appropriate in connection with the obligations incurred by IBA in respect of Derivative CCP Contracts entered into for your account and you must pay such amounts or provide such security. The time by which you must pay any amount called or provide security is of the essence and you must pay the amounts, or provide the relevant security immediately or otherwise within the time specified by IBA from time to time, and if no other time is stipulated by IBA then you are required to comply within twenty-four (24) hours.

[ASIC MIR (Futures) 2.2.5 (b); ASX Clear OR Schedule 5 S5.6]

Your liability for margin calls is not limited to the amount, if any, deposited with IBA.
- (iii) IBA may, in its absolute discretion, vary its deposit or margin requirements. IBA is not obliged to apply the deposit requirement applicable of ASX Clear, provided that IBA calls the minimum deposit required by ASX Clear.
- (iv) If you fail to meet any call or lodge collateral, then IBA may (without prejudice to any other rights or powers under the Terms) in its absolute discretion (but is not obliged to) close out, without notice, all or some of your Derivative Products.

- (v) You must pay in cash any deficit owing to IBA after close out of Derivative Products for whatever reason. If you do not pay that deficit, IBA may (among other things) realise any Financial Products held or otherwise controlled by IBA and apply the proceeds against that deficiency, and you irrevocably authorise IBA to take such action as is necessary to give effect to this clause.
- (vi) You agree to indemnify IBA against any obligation it may have (in respect of a Derivative Product entered into on your account) to pay any amount to ASX Clear or any other person as a deposit or margin.

4.14 Options and Other Rights' Expiration

- (a) Prior to the start of the last trading day before expiration, you agree to close out any outstanding long or short option position or other rights position (including but not limited to equity options, exchange traded fund options and non-cash settled futures options) that you hold for which you have insufficient equity or may have insufficient equity at expiration of the option position or other rights position to exercise (or to be assigned with) such position and to hold the resulting underlying position in your Account.
- (b) If you have not closed out a long or short option or other rights position prior to the start of the last trading day before expiration, and if IBA in its sole discretion determines that you have or may have insufficient equity to hold the underlying position in your Account upon expiration, you authorise IBA, in its sole discretion, to do any or all of the following:
 - (i) close out some or all of the options or rights position prior to expiration;
 - (ii) lapse some or all of the options (i.e., instruct that they not be exercised), even if in-the-money at expiration; or
 - (iii) allow some or all of the options to be exercised/assigned and then liquidate the resulting position.
- (c) IBA may automatically exercise your open option contract if your contract is in the money, in its absolute discretion and in accordance with the Applicable Laws, but it is not obliged to do so. All unexercised option contracts will expire on the expiry date.
- (d) You acknowledge that IBA has the right, but not the obligation, to do any or all of the above.

4.15 Default

- (a) In addition to clause 27.1 of the Terms, each of the following also constitutes a Default:

 - (ii) you fail to perform any obligation arising pursuant to the exercise or settlement of a Derivative Product;
 - (iii) a guarantee lodged by you, or lodged by a third party at your request, in favour of IBA or ASX Clear and pursuant to the Rules is withdrawn without IBA's consent or becomes ineffective and other replacement security acceptable to IBA is not provided;

- (v) you fail to pay the amounts due in respect of a transaction in Derivative Product.

[ASX Clear OR Schedule 5 S5.7]

- (b) If a Default occurs, IBA may, in addition to any other rights which IBA may have against you (including rights in other parts of the Terms), without giving prior notice to you, take any action, or refrain from taking action, which it considers reasonable in the circumstances in connection with Derivative Products registered in your account and, without limitation, IBA may:
 - (i) enter into one or more Transactions to effect the close out of one or more Derivative CCP Contracts in accordance with the ASX Clear Operating Rules;
 - (ii) exercise one or more Derivative CCP Contracts in accordance with the ASX Clear Operating Rules;
 - (iii) cover in whole or in part open positions by entering into further Derivative CCP Contracts;
 - (iv) sell (or arrange for the sale of) any or all of your property (including, but not limited to any Collateral lodged with ASX Clear or IBA, any property that is held by IBA or a nominee), in accordance with these Terms and apply the proceeds towards satisfaction of monies owing by you to IBA;
 - (v) apply any Cover or other monies that you have deposited with ASX Clear or IBA by way of set-off;
 - (vi) do any other things IBA is able to do under the Terms as if a reference in the Terms to your failure to meet any of your obligations included a reference to a Default; and
 - (vii) exercise any other rights conferred by the Rules or the Terms or perform any other obligations arising under the Rules or the Terms in respect of those Derivative Products.

You must account to IBA as if those actions were taken on your instructions and, without limitation, you are liable for any deficiency and are entitled to any surplus which may result.

[ASX Clear OR Schedule 5 S5.7]

- (c) IBA may sell (or arrange the sale of) any Collateral in accordance with section 27.3 of the Terms.

All Derivative Transactions shall be executed and cleared by IBA.

[ASIC MIR (Securities) 3.1.4A]

4.17 Termination

- (a) Either you or IBA may terminate this Addendum in respect of Derivative Products by giving notice in writing to the other. Termination of the Addendum in respect of Derivative Products will be effective upon receipt of the notice by the other party in accordance with the Terms.

- (b) Termination of this Addendum in respect of Derivative Products does not affect the existing rights and obligations of you or IBA at termination, and does not terminate any other part of these Terms. Upon termination, IBA will close out all Derivatives Contracts it holds for your Account, unless, in accordance with a direction from you, those contracts are to be transferred to another Clearing Participant in accordance with the Rules.

[ASX OR Appendix 3801-1 para(6); ASX OR Appendix 3801-2 para(5); ASX Clear OR Schedule 5 S5.11-S5.12]

4.18 Revised terms prescribed by ASX

- (a) If ASX or ASX Clear, as case may be, prescribes amended minimum terms for a client agreement for Derivative Product for the purposes of the Rules (the New Terms), to the extent of any inconsistency between these minimum terms and the New Terms, the New Terms will override the terms of this Addendum [A] and apply as if you and IBA had entered into agreement containing the New Terms.
- (b) IBA will provide a copy of the New Terms to you as soon as practicable after ASX prescribes the New Terms.

[ASX OR Appendix 3801-2 para (6)-(7); ASX Clear OR Schedule 5 S5.13-14]

4.19 Change of Participant

- (a) If you receive a Participant Change Notice from IBA and the Participant Change Notice was received at least 20 Business Days prior to the date proposed in the Participant Change Notice for the change of Participant, you are under no obligation to agree to the change of participant, and may choose to do any of the things set out at 4.19(i) or (ii):
- (i) You may choose to terminate this Clause 4 of Annexure [A] ("Clause 4") in accordance with 4.19 above or by giving instructions to IBA indicating that you wish to transfer the Derivative Products to another participant; or
- (ii) If you do not take any action to terminate this Clause 4 and do not give any other instructions to IBA which would indicate that you do not agree to the change of participant then, on the Effective Date, this Clause 4 will have taken to be novated to the new participant and will be binding on all parties, as if on the Effective Date:
- The new participant is a party to this Clause 4 in substitution for IBA;
 - Any rights of the IBA are transferred to the new participant; and
 - IBA is release by you from any obligations arising on or after the Effective Date.
- (b) The novation under 4.19(a)(ii) will not take effect until you have received a notice from the new participant confirming that the new participant consents to acting as the participant for you. The Effective Date may as a result be later than the date set out in the Participant Change Notice.
- (c) You will be taken to have consented to the events referred to in 4.19(a)(ii) by the doing of any act which is consistent with the novation of this Clause 4 with the novation of this Clause 4 to the new participant (for by giving instructions to the new participant), on or after the Effective Date, and such consent will be taken to given as of the Effective Date.

- (d) This Clause 4 continues for the benefit of the IBA in respect of any rights and obligations accruing before the Effective Date and, to the extent that any or provision of any agreement makes the novation not binding or effective on the Effective Date, then this Clause 4 will continue for the benefit of the IBA until such time as the novation is effective, and the IBA will hold the benefit of this Clause 4 on trust for the new participant.
- (e) Nothing in this Clause 4 will prevent the completion of Derivative Products and Derivative CC Contracts by IBA where the obligation to complete those transactions arises before the Effective Date and this Clause 4 will continue to apply to the completion of those Derivative Products, notwithstanding the novation of this Clause 4 to the new participant under 4.19.
